Dear Elsie,

This article is a follow up of our telephone conversation. Thank you for your willingness to report on our Garden Club in your column. Please feel free to edit in any way. If you have any questions, I can be reached at 952-8961.

Sincerely,

May Kemp
Publicity Chairman

The Mount Airy Clay Breakers Garden Club had a wonderful Christmas meeting at the home of Julie Harrison. A program on Christmas decorations was presented by Julie, President Phyllis Tucker, and Ann Williams. Julie gave everyone a gift of a booklet that she had printed. It contained Christmas memories and recipes that had been contributed by all of the Garden Club members. She also presented prizes for the best recipes and stories, as chosen by an independent Judge. Esther Neckere played her violin and led everyone in the singing of carols. The program finished with a gift exchange. It was a BEAUTIFUL evening of fun and fellowship.

The next meeting of the Mount Airy Clay Breakers will take place at the home of Phyllis Tucker on January 11th. Members are reminded to bring "nice White Elephants" to be auctioned off as a fund raiser.

Mount Airy Clay Breakers Garden Club

Upper Marlboro, MD

Dear Member:

At the January 17 meeting of the Executive Committee a number of matters were discussed. It was decided to send a letter to each Member to make them aware of the discussion concerning membership.

Please refer to Article III A. of the Bylaws in the Garden Club Booklet. According to this, we are allowed to have 20 active members. We now have two persons who desire to join our Club.

Since we are a small Club with limited membership, members must ". . . abide by the bylaws, serve on various committees and participate in Club activities." (Quoted from Article III B.)

Since there is a full membership at the present time, please also see Article III C. "When absent for three consecutive meetings, the absentee will notify the President by phone or letter as to her intentions of remaining a member."

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to seeing you at our next meeting.

Sincerely,

Dottie Sisson
President
