

Hilltop Flower Show Oct. 13

Beginning the '95-'96 year, members of the Hilltop Garden Club met at the Clinton Presbyterian Church on Sept. 8 with Ruth Lloyd as president.

The program, presented by Master Flow Show Judge Glenda Mumford, included demonstration and explanation of principles of artistic and creative designs using weathered wood.

Margaret Dahlgren, conservation chairperson, talked about mice and various chemicals used in the study of pesticides.

Hilltop Garden Club

By Alice Lucke
Phone: 868-1586

The membership decided to give $1 each for Fern Valley at the Arboretum which was damaged by storms.

Reporting on entries at the County Fair featured awards in horticulture earned by Margaret Dahlgren, Peggy Martin and Deedy McHale. Design arrangement awards went to Margaret Dahlgren, Ruth Lloyd, Alice Lucke, Peggy Martin, Deedy McHale, Merle Wesson and Marion Zetterstrom.

The public is invited to the Flower Show on Friday, Oct. 13, from 1 p.m.-4 p.m. at Clinton Presbyterian Church.

Women's Hall of Fame