

Mount Airy Clay Breakers Garden Club - Nov 8, 1984

The Mount Airy Clay Breakers Garden Club met at the home of Elaine Arnold on Nov 8, 1984. Peggy Martin introduced our own Anne DeBesser, who presented a program on Holiday Tables. She coordinated centerpieces, accessories, settings and linens for 3 tables. A mum arrangement featuring a wooden duck graced the Fall table. The Christmas table featured red carnations, nandina, evergreens and candles. She demonstrated ways of changing the centerpiece by using candles different ways. The New Years table was a tall dramatic black and white arrangement of wild grasses.

Julie Harrison presided over the meeting following the program. Thirteen (13) members answered roll call.

Vivian Lynn, treasurer, reported a balance on November 8 of $116²⁰.

Committee Reports:

Civic development is preparing a book of evidence for on the park project for Landscape Critics Council. A congratulatory letter from Parris Glendinning for the beautification award was read. It was decided to wait until Spring to transplant the day lilies in the park.

Federation Delegate - The next meeting is to be held on Nov. 30.

Margaret Hicks gave a most interesting report on planning perennial borders and gardens.

Publicity - Phyllis Tucker wrote an article for the Moulton Community paper.

Old Business:

~~Thank you~~ Julie reported she had a request for our group to make a stocking for the Greens Show. The club voted not to do this as we were helping as hostesses one day.

A thank you note from Ann Williams for the mum sent her was read.

New Business:

The Christmas party will be held on Dec. 8, at the home of Julie & Robert Harrison. Peggy volunteered to call members. Each couple is to bring 2 bottles of wine for a gift exchange.

Peggy extended an invitation to attend the Hilltop Garden Club meeting with a program on hydroponic gardening. She also extended an invitation to attend their Christmas luncheon.

at the Andrews Office's Club. The program will feature arrangements with madonnas.

Peggy Martin won a blue ribbon on her arrangement at the Chrysanthemum Show at Wheaton Plaza.

The meeting adjourned.

The hostess served delicious refreshments from a table featuring a lovely arrangement of mums and incorporating a ceramic pumpkin.

Jimmie Nell Finley, Secretary