

Mr. Airy Garden Club--September 9, 1993

The first meeting for this year was held on the beautiful new porch at the home of Elaine Arnold. Fifteen members attended. Peggy Martin introduced Audrey Whitney who presented an interesting and informative talk on the art of pruning. Delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all and then Dottie Garrison began the meeting by welcoming everyone to the beginning of this new year.

Marie White reported a balance of $1,840.23. The horticulture study for this year is going to be about Native American Plants. Ann Williams began with an interesting talk about the black-eyed susan. Elaine gave the environmental study talk about flowers and plants purifying the air.

We had many winners of ribbons in the flower show at the county fair, including Marie who won the best of show. Joyce talked about the Xmas Greens Show which this year will be of dried materials.
