

MOUNT AIRY CLAY BREAKERS GARDEN CLUB

MINUTES FOR February 10, 2005

HOSTESS: Ester Neckere

ATTENDEES: 16 (Guest, Mary Ellis Hessler)

SPEAKER: Barbara Hopkiss/Hopkins??, Master Gardner, PG County

TOPIC: Native Plants/ Plant invaders of the Mid-Atlantic Area

BUSINESS:

Distributed labels for new members to be placed in our membership book.

Treasury report omitted.

Thank you letter from the Upper Marlboro Library for the gardening presentation.

Horticulture: about planters - spider plants and shamrocks; heather blooms in winter; forcing bulbs.

Conservation: wildlife

First Saturday in April: plant fundraiser. Think about donations for St. Paul's Moravian Church Flea Market

Next month's topic will be Pruning.

New Business: Provide a donation to Andrew's Officers Spouses Club Scholarship Fund; American Cancer Society Hospice. Motion made and carried to donate $50 to Andrews' in memory of Peg Stoval.

Lorraine read Peggy Stoval's eulogy and said it was a lovely ceremony. A letter was read by Mary Beth from Peggy's family.

Joyce Meyer donated a box of gardening books that she left at the church.

Make copies of Native Plants for Landscaping for members

50/50 was held.