

The Mount Airy Claybreakers held their May meeting at the home of Judy Post. Esther Neckere served as a humorous and energetic auctioneer for the annual auction. The evening also included the annual plant exchange.

The Rhapsody of Spring Flower Show put on jointly by the Mount Airy Claybreakers and the Hilltop Garden Clubs was a big success. The Tri Color Award was won by Peggy Martin who is a member of both Clubs. Blue ribbons in flower design were won by Peggy Martin, Dotty Garrison, and Liz Saniga. Ann Williams won a blue ribbon in Horticulture. Esther Neckere and Joyce Meyer won Awards of Excellence in Horticulture.

The June 12 meeting will be held at Mama Stella restaurant and will include the installation of officers for the new year.
