

August 18, 1978

It was a breezy day, a real relief after the miserable muggy weeks we endured this summer. Such a lovely day had been specially ordered by Jan Munsee for the Clay Breakers annual picnic.

Nine of our members and their husbands met at the Naval Communication Picnic Area on the evening of August 18. The hillside overlooking the wooded area were beautiful.

Jan supplied the main course: Hot dogs and Hamburgers, deliciously barbecued by Skip Munsee and Cloyd Sellers. The rest of the many courses was concocted by other members who were present for the occasion. Every dish was a delight, the cake and many fruit desserts were just out of this world.

Everyone was relaxed, enjoying the lovely evening, visiting with each other and sampling everyone of the delicious goodies.

We all agreed Jan had done a tremendous job at organizing a most enjoyable, successful picnic and managing such lovely weather for us. Perhaps Jan will volunteer again next year!
