

Mount Airy Clay Breakers Garden Club - April 11, 1985

The Mount Airy Clay Breakers Garden Club met at the home of Peggy Martin on April 11, 1985. She introduced Gloria Hauser of Virginia, who gave a slide presentation of English Gardens. She took us on a colorful tour of more than 15 public and estate gardens.

The president called the meeting to order and 11 members answered roll call. The minutes of the March meeting were read and approved. In the absence of the Treasurer, the president reported there was approximately $96⁸⁵ in the treasury.

Committed Reports

Civic Development - Roger Neilan plowed an area in the park, and everyone is urged to come out at 10 A.M., Saturday, April 13, to plant day lilies, daffodils, yucca, azaleas, and perennials.

Design - Ann Williams continued her report on the history of flower arranging.

Education - Marie brought an spoon chrysanthemum specimen, which was new to some members.

Federation Meeting - Reservations for the April 23rd Annual Federation Luncheon must be in by April 15. Members were reminded of the azalea sale at Arbor house on April 27.

Program: Peggy announced we would tour a private award winning garden in New Carrollton on May 9. Club members are to meet at Jo Ann Davis's at 6:45 P.M. to car pool to the residence.

Old Business: Home makers will have a flea market at Resaryville on May 18, and we can reserve a table. Every one should price her own items.

New Business

Beth's Purple martin exhibit is currently at the Andrews library and will be set up at the Clinton library next.

Julie read a request from Mellwood for funds to help send retarded children to camp. This was tabled until the May meeting.

Ann Williams, Anne De Baeser, and Marie White were selected to serve on the nominating committee.

The Landscape Critics Design trip will be June 4 & 5, to ~~private~~ gardens in Philadelphia. The cost will be $95⁰⁰.

Margaret Hicks gave a report on choosing and preparing the site for a perennial garden.

The meeting adjourned.

The hostess served delicious refreshments from a table with a lovely centerpiece of daffodils and ornamental peach.

Jimmie Nell Finley, Secretary