

MOUNT AIRY CLAY BREAKERS GARDEN CLUB

MINUTES FOR JANUARY 13, 2005

HOSTESS: MARY JANE BISHOP

ATTENDEES: 18 (Guest: Diana Printess, who moved into Mary Kemp's house)

SPEAKER: ESTER GARDNER, MASTER GARDNER

TOPIC: PLANT PROPOGATION

Peggy Stoval's funeral will be January 25 at 3 .m. at Fort Myer Chapel with burial at Arlington Cemetery. Her family thanks the club for their assistance in helping her.

Mary Beth suggested to do a cookbook or calendar as a fundraiser.

$1,044.91 is the balance in the treasury.

Horticulture - show and tell: Lenten rose blooms in Feb. Yellow Dutch Iris ???d

A committee of Marilyn, Julie and Ann made a motion and it was voted to change the by-laws to expand membership to 24. The membership is not to exceed this number (in order to meet in members' homes).

We are asked to save box tops for Betty Mosher, who works with students in DC at the arboretum.

A 50/50 was held.