

The November meeting of the Mount Airy Claybreakers was held at the Clinton Presbyterian Church. President Betty Abercrombie conducted the meeting. The minutes of the October meeting were approved as read. Jimmy Nell Findlay, Corresponding Secretary, was ill so Peggy Martin read Thank you notes from Al Abercrombie, Marie White, Esther Neckere, and Jimmy Nell Findlay. Treasurer, Anne Williams, was absent and Peggy Martin reported that there was a balance of $812. in the Treasury.

The following committee reports were given:

Historian - no report

Program - Vice President Peggy Martin reported that the Christmas Program will have three members display Xmas crafts

Civic Development - Betty Abercrombie reported that winter arrived at Holloway Park before the Garden Club did! Work will have to be postponed until Spring.

Design - no report

Federation - no report

Horticulture - Marian Moreland gave a report on Anise and passed some around for people to taste and smell.

Hospitality - no report

Publicity - May Kemp reported that there were two articles in the Enquirer Gazette. One, with picture, was about the planting of the crepe myrtle in memory of Mary Ellen. The other was about the October meeting.

Ways and Means- Peggy Martin had the pecans at the meeting ready for sale.

Under old business, Betty Abercrombie and Peggy Martin reported on the district I flower show on October 18th. Ribbons were won by Liz Saniga, Peggy Martin, and Joyce Meyer. Club members who worked at the Show were Betty Abercrombie, Peggy Martin, and May Kemp. There will be a tour to Benches in Largo to see the Poinsettias on Tuesday, November 19th at 2:00 PM. A motion to adjourn the business meeting was made by Joyce Meyer, seconded by Peggy Stovall, and passed by the members. Peggy Martin introduced the program about exhibition tables, as opposed to functional, which were decorated in holiday themes by Marilyn Berkut, Joyce Meyer, and Dotty Garrison. the 50/50 raffle was won by Liz Saniga.