

Article 6/96

The end of the year dinner of the Mount Airy Claybreakers was held at the home of Joyce Meyer. Members not only enjoyed the wonderful food and fellowship, but also Joyce's beautiful landscaped yard. Joyce is a landscape designer for Ed's plant world and a more tranquil and beautiful setting would be hard to find.

Outgoing President Phyllis Tucker presented beautifully calligraphed certificates of appreciation to her board. Dottie Garrison installed the new officers using a special ceremony written in 1984 by Marie W. Lee for the Hilltop Garden Club. The new officers were compared to parts of a flowering plant. All be will led by President Betty Abercrombie to produce superior results and seeds for future growth. Assisting her will be Vice President Peggy Martin, Secretaries Jimmy Nell Findley and May Kemp, Treasurer Ann Williams, and Historian Marie White.