June 2012

The Mount Airy Clay Breakers Garden Club of Upper Marlboro, MD had their annual dinner meeting on June 7, 2012, 6:00 P.M. at Mama Stella's Restaurant in Clinton, MD. The meeting honored Julie Harrison of Marlton, outgoing President and 29 year member of the Clay Breakers. Julie has been an outstanding President for 4 years and has been an inspiration to all of us. She has truly kept us "on the path." She was honored with a large gift basket and several gift certificates by members. Each member also received a certificate for their accomplishments in their particular field.

Guest for the evening was Kyle Musselman 7th grader from St Mary's of Assumption, Catholic Church School, Upper Marlboro, MD who won the poetry contest sponsored by National Garden Clubs, Inc., Central Atlantic Region. The theme this year was "Colorful Fruits" and "Tasty Vegetables". Kyle's poem was "Grapes Greening Greatly."

Officers for the coming year were installed by Danielle Barbizon, President of District I.

Members will begin working immediately with the after school children's program at Concordia Lutheran Church of Upper Marlboro, MD. The theme this year is "butterfly gardens."

Annual picnic will be held at the home of Pat Hall's in Mary Vale, Upper Marlboro on July 21, 2012 at 4:00 P.M.

Regular meetings for 2012-2013 years will resume in September. Location TBD.
