

1986 Mt. Airy Clay Breakers Gården Club Christmas Party

The Mt. Airy Clay Breakers Garden Club held their annual Christmas dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker, Waldorf, Maryland, December 27, 1986. Lighted candles along the driveway and sidewalk gave a cheery Christmas welcome for the guests' arrival. Guests nibbled on appetizers and sipped refreshments while "playing" a get-acquainted game. Delicious food had been provided by club members. There was an abundance of vegetable casseroles, jello and fruit salads, baked honey ham (provided by the hostess), homemade rolls, and desserts.

After dinner, guests were invited to a treasure hunt. When everyone had found their treasures, they were asked to "decorate the Christmas tree". When that was done, there was an opportunity to identify Christmas song titles. Winners were rewarded with prizes. Anne DeBossier read the "T'was the Morning After Christmas" for the wine exchange.

The Tucker home had flower arrangements in various rooms consisting of red carnations, greens and mums. On the fireplace mantel was featured a basket of pine boughs and tiny twinkling white lights.

Guests present: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ed DeBossier; Mr. and Mrs. Neckere; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison, Mrs. Marian Moreland; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Findley.
