

Mount Ainy Clay Breakers Garden Club - June 13, 1985

The Mount Ainy Clay Breakers Garden Club met at the home of Joyce Meyer on June 13, 1985. Ten members answered roll call. The minutes of the May meeting were read and approved. In the absence of the treasurer, the president reported the balance in the treasury to be $285⁷⁵.

Committee Reports:

Civic Development: Chairman Peggy Martin reported that she, Marie White, and Ann Williams planted begonias, Coleus, and alyssum in the entrance area. Roger mulched plantings at the park and Peggy fertilized them. A schedule was set up for tending the park during the summer months.

Federation: There have been no Federation meetings. Anne De Boer volunteered to work at the gift center during the summer months.

Old Business: The club made a total of $60⁰⁰ at the flea market.

Members attending the Landscape Cities Design group tour of homes and gardens in the Philadelphia area reported a most enjoyable time.

Anne ^{W. Boesky} and Julie displayed Betty's purple martin exhibit at the American Horticultural Society's spring festival at River Farm. It was well received.

New Business:

The Prince Georges Beautification committee has asked if garden clubs in District I would help with food and decorations for the awards program this fall. It is normally held the first Wednesday in October. The Club voted to help!

The Central Atlantic Region meeting of the National Council of State Garden Clubs will be held in our area October 28, 29, & 30.

The group held a discussion on planning programs next year based on the assumption we would attempt to hold our first flower show.

It was decided to have a picnic in the park on the second Thursday in August. Peggy Martin,

Ann Williams, + Jimmie Nell Finley will serve on a committee to plan the picnic.

Elaine Arnold, Anne De Beuser, Marie White, and Julie Harrison will comprise the yearbook committee for 1985-86.

The hostess served delicious refreshments from the dining table which ^{was} centered with a lovely arrangement of day lilies. She also had an arrangement of Geokera daisies in the living room.

The meeting adjourned.

Jimmie Nell Finley, Secretary

The picnic was held at Julie Harrison's on Saturday, August 3. A good time was had by all.
